LOCALS WIN THE THIRD

Last Game With Wilmington a One Sided Affair.

VISITORS WENT ALL TO PIECES

Pitcher Had Shipbuilders Well in Hand, But His Support Was Very
Rocky and Home Team Rolled Up
Total of Eight Runs.

While Joe Hampton and his crew of ball tossers from Wilmington, Del., were busily engaged during two sessions of the performance with the Shipbuilders at the Casino park yesterday afternoon in giving some five or six hundred fanatics a few fancy demonstrations of airship flights as sometimes pulled off by the best of baseball teams, the locals marched away with the final game of the series to the strains of 8 to 4. Although the home team played excellent ball all the way, the exhibition of the visitors was so rank that quite a number of the fans left the park in disgust sometime before the game ended.

Collins, the lad who won the first game of the series, was in the box for Wilmington and he pitched great ball throughout, allowing but five singles, three of which were the merest scratches, while he gave out one free transportation. With any kind of support from the men behind him he would have given the locals a hard fight for the game. "Southpaw" Gaylord also pitched good ball for the Shipbuilders, striking out twelve of the visitors and giving but two bases on balls.

During the first three sessions the game was as pretty as could be demanded from any team, but in the advent of the fourth inning the Wilmington players took a flight in their airship and when they settled down again the home team had gathered in two tallies. The visitors tied the score in the next inning, but when they came to bat in the same session, the locals scored five more runs, while the visitors were off on another of their flights.

The visitors' other two runs came in the seventh on an error, a stolen base and two doubles. In the next session the locals made it one better on an error, a sacrifice and a single by John O'Hara, that ended the run getting.

There will be preaching by the pastor, Rev. Murdock W. Butler, at the East End Christian church this morning at 11 o'clock. In the evening at 8 o'clock, Children's Day services will be conducted.

TURNED THE JOKE.

The Way a Bridegroom Got the Laugh on His "Funny" Chum.

Under the thin disguise of harmless fun many an unpardonable rude prank is played upon newly married couples. It is refreshing to hear of an occasional instance in which the "joke" reacts on the joker. A young man and his bride, who had just been married in a western town, were starting on their wedding journey. They had managed to reach the train in safety despite the showers of rice and old shoes.

Just as they had taken their seats in the car one of the bridegroom's chums came hastily in to bid him goodbye. As the young husband extended his hand the friend snapped a handcuff round his wrist.

"That's a good one on me, Harry," he said, with a sickly kind of smile, "but I'll have to ask you to come to the door with me and get the key to these things from the fellow outside that's got it. Hold on, conductor, just a minute!"

But the conductor, whose quick eye had taken in the situation, refused to wait. He gave the order for starting, and the train pulled out. It was a through train and made no stop for the next fifty miles. Before it stopped, however, the brakeman, with the aid of a sharp file and a hammer, succeeded in releasing Harry. The practical joker meanwhile had had to pay full fare for the fifty miles and still had his fare home to pay.
